Todd Eric Allen, NFB Artistic Director

A native of Fort Walton Beach, Florida, Mr. Allen was a scholarship student at the Joffrey School of Ballet in New York City for five years. He also attended Virginia Intermont College where he was awarded the 1985 Dancemagazine Scholarship to the Choreographers Conference.

Mr. Allen has danced with the Louisville Ballet, Boston Ballet and Les Grands Ballets Canadiens, and has performed as a guest artist and teacher throughout the United States. He has performed featured roles in ballets by Twyla Tharp, Mark Morris, Jiri Kylian, Nacho Duato and James Kudelka, and has recently returned from a three-month engagement with the Broadway hit, Movin' Out in New York City.

Todd Eric Allen has been described as "a choreographer of genuine talent" by Christine Temin of the Boston Globe and "one of the most original and exciting choreographers I know" by the late Fernando Bujones.
